Christmas In Seville

with The Festival Orchestra
Colleen Athparia, Organist

We journey to Seville for joyous Christmas music one might hear in this most colorful of Spanish cities - lively villancicos (carols), sacred motets from the Renaissance by Guerrero and Victoria, and popular favorites like Feliz Navidad. Featuring the Calgary premiere of Joaquin Rodrigo's Retablo de Navidad.

Songs of Innocence

with guest instrumentalists and Colleen Athparia, Pianist

We see the world through the eyes of children in selections by classical composers - Brahms, Mozart, Beethoven, and Copland. We cross over to pop and jazz-inflected works by John Rutter, and classics such as Lewis Carroll's Jabberwocky, The Teddy Bears' Picnic and favorites featured in Disney movies – Fantasia, Beauty and the Beast.

Our annual Spring full-evening oratorio extravaganza!

A favorite with our audiences. In choruses, arias, and ensembles, Haydn tells the story of the first six days of creation in joyful, reverential music, combining gentle humor and child-like naiveté with profound nobility of expression. The Heavens are Telling the Glory of God.
